Rivers and Harbors-Our Bars.

It seems to be generally understood that no general River and Harbor Bill, not based upon the recommendations and estimates of the Engineer department, them s likely to receive the sanction of the President .-Any omnibus Bill, encumbered with all sorts of local appropriations, evidently unnational in their character, is bound to be met by a Presidential veto. It is fortunate for our work, that the report of the Engineer department, and of the commission appointed to examine it, both report strongly in favor of it, as national, feasible, and important; -that it will be included in any Bill which the Committee on Commerce may report, we feel certain. as we do that any Bill including only such works, will be sanctioned by the President. Of course no Bill has yet been reported or matured. It has been the usage for such Bills to originate in the House, and we suppose that usage will be adhered to in the present instance.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting Rob't Strange Jr., Esq., who, with R. H. Cowan, Esq., has just returned from Washington City? It is quite too early in the session to make any certain calculations, and of course these gentlemen cannot pretend to do al appropriation being made. The very best feeling seems to exist towards the work, and the United influence of the N. Carolina delegation in both Houses will be exerted in its favor. We were assured yesterday or the day before, by a merchant of this place, who is practically acquainted with, as well as interested in, such matters, that the improvement in the Bar at the entrance of the River, produced by the works on Bald Head, is already perceptible. This is certainly a strong ground for urging a continuance of the work to completion. Daily Journal, 3d inst.
